Computational Geometry

(csci3250)

Laura Toma

Bowdoin College

Finding collinear points

We'll start with a warmup problem:

Problem: Given a set of n points in 2D, determine if there exist three points that are collinear.

Come up with different solutions to this problem (and analyze/compare them).